

Air Sailing invites you to the “Airport Operations in the C-19 Environment” Webinar (Registration Required)

Who: Members of Air Sailing

What: “Airport Operations in the COVID-19 Environment” Webinar

Where: Zoom (web meeting/conferencing platform)

When: Sunday, May 31, 2020, 7:00 PM Pacific Time

Why: Prior to their first tow of the year, pilots operating from the Air Sailing Gliderport are required to:

- receive a safety briefing,
- read the “Air Sailing Gliderport 2020 Operating Procedures Manual”,
- certify their understanding of that manual by signing the “Operating Procedures Manual Acknowledgement Log”, and
- provide proof of acceptable aircraft insurance.

Attending this webinar will satisfy a portion of these requirements.

Accreditation procedures for having attended this webinar will be announced.

What If I Can’t Make It?: This webinar will be recorded.

How: Register in advance (or cancel your registration at any time) for this webinar using the registration link provided in your invitation which was e-mailed to members of Air Sailing. If you did not receive an invitation, request one from David Volkmann (see e-mail address on Meet the Trustees webpage).

Special Circumstances: Due to current circumstances and rapid changes to the COVID-19 situation, all information in this message is subject to change.

Questions?: Contact David Volkmann (see e-mail address on Meet the Trustees webpage).

See You There!
